We Should Try to Be Better than We Were Yesterday

ght to improve ourselves e faster toward the point tion. It is said that we e perfect. Jesus has ded us to be perfect even the Father, is perfect. It is to try to be perfect, and it ty to improve each day, upon our course last week hings better this week; do etter today than we did them yesterday, and go on and on from one degree of righteousness to another. Jesus will come by and by, and appear in our midst, as He appeared in the day when upon the earth among the Jews, and He will eat and drink with us and talk to us, and explain the mysteries of the Kingdom, and tell us things that are not lawful to talk about now."

(13-15) We Require Divine Assistance to Overcome the World

"We are dependent upon the Spirit of the Lord to aid us and to manifest to us from time to time what is necessary for us to accomplish under the peculiar circumstances that may surround us. It is the privilege of Latter-day Saints, when they get into difficulties, to have supernatural power of God, and in faith, day by day; to secure from the circumstances which may surround us that which will be beneficial and advance us in the principles of holiness and sanctification, that we may as far as possible be like our Father. It certainly is possible to advance ourselves toward the perfections of
